

Thought Poppies

There are two template options for young people and adults to write their thoughts for the County Remembrance Service

Please feel free to use either. The first is already filled in or the second template can be coloured in by the young people.

We would suggest that where possible they are laminated once they are finished – it might rain on the day and we would like to avoid them being damaged.

